SHORELINE SIGHTSEEING OKTOBERFEST CRUISE RETURNS SEPTEMBER 21

Shoreline and Paulina Market team up for sixth annual "Beer Brats and Boats" Oktoberfest Event

Chicago, IL: Shoreline Sightseeing and Paulina Market will present their sixth annual Beer, Brats and Boats Oktoberfest celebration and cruise on Thursday, September 21.

The evening will feature a classic German dinner provided by the staff of Chicago's own Paulina Market and a selection of Oktoberfest brews, including a free drink with souvenir beer stein. The popular Paloma Band will be on hand dressed in their traditional Oktoberfest finest and ready to involve everyone on board in an evening of enthusiastic German-themed singing and dancing. Guests are invited to don their dirndl dresses or lederhosen to join in the Oktoberfest fun.

Oktoberfest festivities will take place on a starlit, two-hour cruise on Chicago's waterways. Cash bar will be available. The Oktoberfest Cruise departs Polk Bros Park at Navy Pier 7:00 p.m., returning 9:00 p.m. Boarding will begin at 6:45. p.m. Tickets $59. Must be 21. For information and tickets, visit <http://www.shorelinesightseeing.com/special-events/>, or call 312-222-9328.

Paulina Market has been a Lakeview landmark since its founding in 1949. The Market is known throughout Chicago for its quality hormone-free meats and poultry as well as an amazing array of homemade sausages including their famous brats.

Shoreline Sightseeing is celebrating its 78th season on Chicago's waterways. Founded in 1939, Shoreline today operates Chicago's largest and most diverse fleet of cruise boats and water taxis with ten major touring vessels and six water taxis. Brothers Chip and Matt Collopy represent the third generation of family ownership.
